

Data Protection Information Notice

Background

The MECO Group, its subsidiaries and brands collect relevant information about you to provide insurance cover and/or services that benefits you and to meet our legal obligations.

This information includes details such as your name, address and contact details and any other information that about you in connection with the insurance cover and/or services from which you benefit.

Your information may need to be shared with, and used by, a number of third parties for example, insurers, agents or brokers, reinsurers, loss adjusters, sub-contractors, regulators, law enforcement agencies, fraud and crime prevention and detection agencies and compulsory insurance databases. We will only disclose personal information in connection with the insurance cover that we provide and to the extent required or permitted by law.

There may be instances where we need your consent to process certain categories of information and in such cases we will contact you separately, however if this is denied it may prevent us from providing cover and/or handling claims.

Other people's details you provide to us

Where you provide us or your agent or broker with details about other people, you must provide this notice to them.

Want more details?

For more information about how we use your personal information please contact us.

Contacting us and your rights

You have rights in relation to the information we hold about you, including the right to access your information. If you wish to exercise your rights, discuss how we use your information please contact us, or the agent or broker that arranged your insurance who will provide you with our contact details.

Should you have any queries in relation to this notice then please contact us.

The MECO Group
February 2019